APPENDIX B – FCRPP MODEL TIME-SHARING/VISITATION GUIDELINES

The following schedules are suggested as guidelines for the parents and the court in establishing time-sharing/visitation schedules. Each case will present unique facts or circumstances which shall be considered by the court in establishing a time sharing/visitation schedule and the final schedule established by the court or agreed to by the parents may or may not be what these guidelines suggest.

1. The time-sharing/visitation schedule set by the court for holidays, school breaks and summer break should control over regularly scheduled timesharing/visitation time, even if this allows successive timesharing/visitation periods.
2. The parent exercising time-sharing/visitation should be responsible for timely picking up the child(ren) at the beginning of the timesharing/visitation period and returning the child(ren) in a timely manner at the end of the time-sharing/visitation period.
3. Times in a time-sharing/visitation schedule should be set in the time zone where the child primarily resides.
4. For time-sharing/visitation times pertaining to school holidays, whether in a formal school or home-schooled, the school holidays where the children) primarily resides should apply.
5. Each parent should provide to the other parent contact numbers and addresses (unless a domestic violence order is in effect) where the child(ren) can be located during their scheduled time-sharing/visitation time.
6. The parent exercising time-sharing/visitation should be given a minimum of every other weekend as time-sharing/visitation time with the child(ren) and one midweek overnight time-sharing/visitation. The parent having such time-sharing/visitation should be responsible for delivering the child(ren) to school, childcare, or the other parent's home as specifically ordered by the court or agreed to by the parents.
7. Holidays.
 - a. If a holiday is celebrated on a Monday following a parent's regularly scheduled time-sharing/visitation, then that parent should be permitted to extend parenting time until 6:00 p.m. on the holiday, unless the parents agree otherwise.
 - b. Other holidays.
 - i. Parent exercising time-sharing/visitation.
 1. During the first full year after divorce/custody proceedings have been filed, the non-residential parent should have time-sharing/visitation scheduled as follows:
 - a. New Year's Day and July 4th from 8:00 a .m. until 6:00 p.m.
 - b. Thanksgiving, beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day school ends until 3:00 p.m. Thanksgiving Day.
 - c. Christmas/Winter Break, beginning at 6:00 p.m. the day school ends until noon on December 25.
 - d. Holidays not listed that are of special interest to the family should be assigned to the nonresidential parent in time amounts similar to those in a), b) and c) above.

2. Holiday time not scheduled above to the parent exercising time-sharing/visitation should be with the other parent.
 3. Mother's Day and Father's Day, regardless of any conflict with the above proposed schedule, should be spent with the appropriate parent from 8:00 a.m. until 6:00p.m.
 4. Fall Break or Spring Break, as allowed by the child(ren)'s school calendar, should be scheduled for the parent with whom the children) primarily resides in the first full year after the divorce/custody proceedings are filed from 6:00 p.m. the day school ends until 6:00 p.m. the following Friday . If school breaks are longer than one week due to the. School schedule, the parent with whom the child(ren) primarily resides should be scheduled for the first half of the break and the other parent should be scheduled for the last half.
 5. Summer Break should be scheduled to allow the parent exercising time-sharing/visitation a minimum of two periods of two consecutive weeks during the Summer Break. Each parent should provide the time periods he or she desires to the other parent before the end of the school year, or at least 60 days in advance of the requested time. If a child must attend summer school in order to pass to the next grade, summer time-sharing/visitation should not prevent school time.
 6. Birthdays: Unless the birthday falls on a regularly scheduled time-sharing/visitation day, the parent exercising time-sharing/visitation should be scheduled for birthday time from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. If it is a regular day of the parent exercising timesharing/visitation where the children) does not primarily reside, the other parent should have birthday time from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.
 - ii. Alternating years: For each year thereafter, the timesharing/visitation set out above should alternate between the parent with whom the child(ren) primarily resides and the parent exercising time-sharing/visitation.
8. Waiting/Tardiness/Cancellations.
- a. In the event either parent will be more than 30 minutes late, due to reasonable unforeseen circumstances, to pick up the child(ren), he or she should provide direct notice to the other parent or a designated third party and make suitable arrangements for exchange of the child(ren).
 - b. If time-sharing/visitation is missed through no fault of the parent, and reasonable notice has been given, that time should be made up, if reasonable to do so.
 - c. If the child(ren) is ill, the parent who has the child should give 24-hour notice, if possible, to allow for appropriate plans to be made.
9. Transportation: The parents should transport the child(ren) in a safe manner, which includes utilizing the appropriate child restraint systems and not driving under the influence of intoxicants.

APPENDIX C – COLORADO METHOD

The Colorado Method may be applied to determine child support in true parenting situations, which for Campbell County Family Court is defined as physical custody for at least 40% of the time. The formula utilizes the percentage of shared parenting and the child support guidelines.

It is applied as follows:

- (1) Add both parents' gross monthly income to determine the total child support from the KY Child Support Guideline (line 7). Then multiply that figure by 1.5 to determine the new total child support.
- (2) Multiply that figure by the parents' proportionate income (for example, if dad brings in 75% of the total monthly income, multiply by 75% for dad and 25% for mom) to determine each "child support obligation."
- (3) Then multiply each parent's child support obligation from the above paragraph 2 by the percentage of "shared parenting" (for example, if mom has the child 9 out of 14 nights, multiply her figure by 64% and multiply dad's figure by 36%) and then SUBTRACT that number from the figures determined in paragraph 2 to determine each parent's new net child support obligation.
- (4) Then, subtract the lower net child support figure (mom's) from the higher (dad's) to determine actual child support from one parent (dad) to the other (mom). (If neither parent pays health insurance or childcare, then this is the final child support obligation.)
- (5) If one or both of the parent's pays for health insurance and/or childcare, then continue. Add together what is paid from either parent for health insurance and childcare monthly. That total is multiplied by the percentage each parent's income. The party with the child support obligation above subtracts what their percentage is from what they pay directly to the provider to determine if they have an overpayment for those expenses. If there is an overpayment, then it is subtracted from the child support obligation. If there is no overpayment, then it is added to the child support obligation.

COLORADO METHOD
SIMPLE APPLICATION

Dad's Monthly Income = $3,000.00

Mom's Monthly Income = $1,000.00

Total Monthly Income = $4,000.00

Child Support per Guidelines $571

Multiplier x 1.5

$856

Mom (25%) $214

Dad (75%) $642

Mom's x% of shared parenting (64%) = $137

Dad's x% of shared parenting (36%) = $231

Subtract: $214 $642

- 137 - 231

Mom $ 77 Dad $411

Subtract: Dad $411

Mom $ 77

Net Child Support $334 per month from Dad to Mom
Obligation

Application of Colorado Rule re: Child Support Obligation

In this case, Dad makes $1,646.67 per month, and Mom makes minimum wage.
Dad pays $162.71 per month for the child's insurance; and Mom pays $43.33 per month for daycare. Each parent has the child 7 out of 14 nights.

Dad's Monthly Income = $1,646.67
Mom's Monthly Income = $1,256.67
Total Monthly Income = $2,903.34

Child Support per Guideline = $455.00 (line 7 from Child Support Worksheet)
Multiplier = 1.5
Subtotal = $682.50

Mom's % of income (43.28 %) = $295.39 (43.28% x $682.50)
Dad's % of income (56.72 %) = $387.11 (56.72% x $682.50)

Mom's % of shared parenting (50%) = $147.70 (50% x $295.39)
Dad's % of shared parenting (50%) = $193.56 (50% x $387.11)

Subtract: $295.39 $387.11
- $147.70 - $193.56
$147.69 (Mom) $193.55 (Dad)

Subtract: Dad $193.55
- Mom $147.69
$45.86 Dad Subtotal

Dad pays insurance: $162.71 / month
Mom pays childcare: $ 43.33 / month
$206.04

Dad's % of ins/childcare $116.87 ($206.04 x 56.72%)
Mom's % of ins/childcare $ 89.17 ($206.04 x 43.28%)

Subtract: $162.71 What Dad Pays Directly to Provider
- $116.87 Dad's % of ins/childcare
- $45.84 Dad's overpayment

- $45.84 (Dad's overpayment for ins/childcare)
+ $45.86 (Dad's Subtotal)
$ 0.02 Dad's Child Support Obligation to Mom

Therefore, Dad's child support obligation to Mom is $0.02
